Brethren

February was a busy month. On February 8th we had the honor of recognizing three 25 year Masons, five 40 year Masons, seven 50 year Masons, four 55 year Masons and two 60 year Mason. Some of them could not be there for various reasons. Those that could make it were: John Peters 40, Charles Schenck 40, Everett Tarter 40, Richard Brenner 50, Cyrus DeLong 50, Seymour Simpson 50, Jack Rosen 55, John Arnold 55 and the Grand Daddy of them all Arnold Liebeskind 60! My Brothers, CONGATULATIONS.

We also voted in seven Brothers by affiliation. Welcome Brothers Albert Krantzberg, Stephen Ratner, Joseph Taylor, Lionel Brice, Marc Fareau, Kanz Lewis and Leclesse Louine.

On February 22nd we had six Brothers who, with the help of the coach David Scheirich, did an exemplary proficiency for their Master Masons Degree and then WB Kevin Sweeney presented them with their Aprons in wonderful style. We balloted to confer the EA degree on Messrs Lee Malkin, James Wooster and William Eckert and voted in five Brothers by affiliation. Welcome Brothers David Kimmel, Jean Fortuna, George Holdridge, Philippe Antoine and Nesly Leonvil.

One of the goals I mentioned in my first Trestleboard was to honor one of the local teachers for their excellence. WB Irwin Ettlinger and his committee have been hard at work and the letters have gone out to the schools.

Another item was an official visit to our Sister Lodge in Freeport, Grand Bahamas. We will be going there on April 20th and returning the 22nd. Please read WB Richard Philpott's article, make your plans and reservations soon. Let me or our Secretary know if you and your Lady are going so we and our Brothers at ARAWAK can plan accordingly.

March will be a busy month as well. Usual business and additionally we will be putting on an Entered Apprentice Degree on a called communication on March 15th. Hope you can be there.

The Lake Worth Rainbow Assembly sends their heartfelt thanks for the Lodge's and your personal donations to help them be able to go to their Grand Assembly meeting. My personal thanks to you also.
