Brethren

At our first stated meeting in May, the 14th, we honored Br. Bert Eippert for 65 years as a Mason, W. Bro. Robert Miller for 60 years as a Mason and Br. Leslie Harold Sher (from Michigan) for 50 years as a Mason. It was an honor to sit in lodge with men serving Masonry as long as these gentlemen. R.H. Karroum did an outstanding job, as usual, of presenting the brothers Masonic history and awarding them their pins.

We also presented Miss. Reginette Ezume with her scholarship award of $1000.00. She is a wonderful young Lady and I know we all wish her the best in her college experience. She plans to attend Palm Beach Community College.

We also discussed an ongoing issue with the Eastern Star Chapter No 238 that uses our lodge for their chapter meetings. I plan to address this issue at our stated meetings in June. I hope that as many brothers as possible will attend, including our members that are Eastern Star members, and participate in the decision making process.

At our second stated meeting in May, the 28th, we had the privilege of honoring Boynton Beach Police Officers Matthew Medeiros and Scott Spruill for their extraordinary police work that was above and beyond the call of duty. The Boynton Police Department Color Guard did an excellent job of retiring the Flag in front of the lodge and raising a new one in its place, afterwards they presented the Colors at the opening of the evening inside the Lodge. The Color Guard was very focused, and I felt it was a pleasure to watch them in action. We also had the privilege of honoring Br. Perry Corman for his outstanding volunteer work with the Delray Police Department.

We then presented Miss. Dana Lauricin with her scholarship award. She, like Miss Ezume, is a wonderful young lady and I know we all wish her the best in her college experience as well. She plans to attend Florida State University. I really enjoyed the evening and I hope everyone in attendance did as well.

For the upcoming month of June : On Tuesday the 9th of June we hope to confer the FC Degree on a group of worthy brothers. This will be a called communication and will begin at 7:00 PM.

On Thursday the 11th, the first stated meeting in June, we will have our new DDGM R.W. Michael Cribbett and R.H. Roy Strohacker, District instructor in attendance. This will be his first official visit to our Lodge as the DDGM.

On thursday the 25th, the second stated meeting in June, we hope to have an EA Degree for a group of worthy candidates.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Michael A. Floering, W.M.

Proud to serve Boynton Lodge #236 F & AM
