FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

This month we had the privilege of awarding our very own Br. Seymour “Ziggy” Friedman and Br. Ed Dollins their 50 year and 55 year service certificates, respectively. Also, we awarded Br. Joel S. Rudich his 50 year service certificate from the Grand Lodge of New York. Congratulations brothers for all your years of service to our time honored fraternity and thank you for your continued support.

Our Treasurer presented the lodge with the financial report for the 3rd quarter and with that began the discussion of our budget deficit. It was motioned and seconded that we revised our by-laws with regards to the interest generated from the lodge Endowment Account. A copy of Section 13.04 of our by-laws and the revision that was voted on is included in this month’s trestle board. To make this official we will be balloting on this at our 1st communication of November.

This being our last quarter of the year, our charity is the District Toy Drive. Please consider donating to this worthy effort to bring underprivileged children gifts for Christmas. You can drop as many unwrapped gifts as you would like at the lodge or you can make a monetary donation. We have made huge donations over the last few years and I hope we can do better than years past.

Please remember, we meet on the 2nd & 3rd Thursday this month and next.

I hope your Thanksgiving is filled with blessings and joy. I wish all of you and yours a safe and Happy Thanksgiving.

Proposed By-Laws changes to section 13.04

13.04 Other Provisions.C Lodge Endowment Fund – There is hereby established a fund to be designated the Endowment Fund of Boynton Lodge no. 236 Free and Accepted Masons of Florida. The principal amount thereof shall not be expended for any purpose or purposes whatsoever save for investment and reinvestment. The entire interest income and dividend income derived therefrom may, in case of necessity, be expended for the use of the following year’s budget of Boynton Lodge No. 236 Free and Accepted Masons of Florida. If said interest income and dividend are not necessary for the operation of the Lodge and hence not used the following year, the unused balance thereof shall become an integral part of the principal. In the event a need is determined, all, or a portion of that income may only be disbursed when a proposition justifying and documenting the expense is made in writing at a Stated Communication. After discussion, and if approved by majority vote, the said disbursement can be made.

The management of said fund shall be the responsibility of the Finance Committee. The Finance Committee shall make investment recommendations to the Craft and shall be open to and consider suggestions and recommendations from the Craft with regard to said investment recommendations. A vote shall be taken and a majority of the Brethren there present shall be required in order to implement said investment recommendation. Said Finance Committee shall maintain an investment strategy which adheres to a conservative approach characteristic for an endowment fund of this nature.

At the end of each fiscal year, the Lodge’s unrestricted operational accounts shall be evaluated after all the current’s year’s expenses have been fully satisfied. Any excess funds shall be transferred to the Endowment Fund leaving sufficient capital to maintain the effective operation of the Lodge for the next fiscal year.

All bequests or donations made to the Lodge which have been specifically designated for the Endowment Fund shall, upon receipt, be immediately placed in said fund. Donations specifically earmarked for the Building or Scholarship Fund shall continue to be placed in the respective account and shall not be co-mingled with one another or the Endowment Fund itself.

After giving written notice to the Craft, at the first Stated Communication of the year, the Worshipful Master or the Senior Warden, as chairman of the Finance Committee shall present a realistic and balanced budget for the ensuing year’s income/expenses as compared to the prior year’s income and expenses. Copies of said budget will be provided to the Brethren present, voted upon, and approved.

First Vote was unanimous at stated communication October 9th, 2014. Second and final vote will be at November 13th stated meeting, 2014
