Brethren:

On the July 10th called communication, we passed six Brothers to the Degree of FC. Bro. Ross Cooper our Junior Warden open and closed the Lodge. Bro. Rodney Gnoinsky, Senior Deacon, was in the East for the Degree for the first time ever. The members present enjoyed excellent ritual work by the degree team.

On July 18th, the Bahamian Brothers from Arawak No 8877 and Carlton No 9134 Lodges visited Boynton Lodge. A mock second section of the Master Mason Degree was put on in costume for the visiting Brothers to see (different from the English constitution style). The Brothers present had a great time of fellowship and brotherly love. I want to thank all the Brothers who participated in the Degree especially R.W. Morton Goss (King Solomon) who had a very short notice to prepare. Due to the summer months, many of our officers were out of town. However, our Lodge is blessed by having so many Brothers who can step in and help. Bro Johnny Carreon was told of his part for the first time on Thursday night, the day before, and he did an excellent work.

On July 19th, we got together with the Bahamian Brothers, their ladies and children plus some guests for dinner and dancing at Atlantis Country Club. Everyone enjoyed the meal, fellowship, music and dancing. Speaking of entertainment, Brother James Bowman was the center of it. He sang Frank Sinatra, Rock and Roll, even Spanish songs. I want to thank Brother Bowman for a job well done. On July 24th meeting the Lodge voted unanimously to adopt the changes to our by-Laws concerning creating The Endowment Fund for the Lodge. These changes will be submitted to Grand Lodge for final approval.

As many of you already know Boynton Lodge No 236 has been growing fast for the past three years. We keep getting petitions from good young men asking to join our fraternity. This year, we have had initiated 14 Brothers and passed nine to the degree of FC. We have six new petitioners awaiting the lodge approval. Boynton Lodge is growing with more new young Brothers who will build the path of the future. As Masons, it is our responsibility to guide and teach the young ones and then watch their growth as they shape our Lodge. The second meeting in August, Thursday 28th, we will have an EA Degree for five candidates. Please come out to support them and the degree team.

For those Brothers who are traveling with their family in the summer months, I say have a great time and return to us safe. For those who are spending their summer up north in the cool climate I say enjoy it while it lasts. And for those Brothers who cannot travel because of sickness I say Get Well and I wish them speedy recovery. See you in Lodge.

Fraternally,
Nabil Karroum, WM
