At our stated meeting on June 14, we discussed the results of Grand Lodge legislation. In last months' Trestleboard, we published those results. If you would like to have a copy of the resume, you can email your request to RH John Karroum or me.

We balloted on the applications for dual membership for Brothers Joseph Pierre Demesmin, Joseph Milot Demesmin, Jean Robert Reid, and Jean Denis Saintfort. Welcome my Brothers as the newest members of Boynton Lodge! Next, we balloted on candidates Justin Ronald Harris, Thomas Wesley Jones, and Robert Lloyd Hess. They were elected to receive the three degrees. They were initiated in the second stated meeting.

June 14th was Flag Day so we had a reading on the history of the American Flag, which had been printed in "Further Light", the publication of the Florida Lodge of Research. It was very interesting to say the least. Kudos to Dean F. Harwood, Past Master Florida Lodge of Research. If you want a copy in PDF format, send me an email request.

June 28th started with a delicious spaghetti dinner prepared by our Junior Warden Michael Floering and his wife Diane. I ate so much I was afraid I might fall asleep in Lodge. The Lodge meeting was so good; I didn't even get a chance to take a nap. We opened the Lodge with sorrow because W. Bro. Tom Mangold, Past Master of Boynton lodge 236, lost his son. I ask that you keep Tom, Kathy, and their family in your prayers. They have done so much for this Lodge and in their time of sorrow, I know that our prayers can help.

Not only did Michael Floering out do himself on putting on the spaghetti dinner, he and his team put on an exceptional Entered Apprentice degree for Justin Ronald Harris, Thomas Wesley Jones and Robert Lloyd Hess. The same degree team will be putting on the Entered Apprentice degree July 19. So if you missed this one, try to make it to Lodge then to see another well-done EA° that night.

My thanks to RW Brent Bayer, our new District Deputy Grand Master, for taking the time to visit our last two meetings. He gave us the opportunity to buy coins for the Grand Masters Children's Fund. The benefits go to our Masonic Youth organizations. If you did not get a chance to buy one or two, I hope that WB Bayer will again be at our meeting to give that good opportunity.

Thanks to the wonderful generosity of you Brothers because in a large part, our local Rainbows girls were able to go to their Grand Assembly without having to take money out of their pockets. Thanks to you all for your support when Erin Kennelly was at Lodge and sang such a beautiful rendition of our National Anthem.

Six Brothers have stepped up to the plate to get our DeMolay Chapter going. Geoff Williams will be the DeMolay Dad. The other members of the committee are Brad Partridge, Marc Fareau, John Morris, John Allen, and me. WE NEED YOUR HELP! Bring us your young men from twelve to twenty years old. The first twenty will have free lifetime membership as well as the initiation fee waived. There just is no better organization to help boys become good and upright men than DeMolay. You will be doing a young man a big favor if you get him involved in DeMolay.
