Brethren:

It has been two months since I was installed as the Worshipful Master of Boynton Lodge. We have had very exciting meetings. In February, after many practices, the officers put together an E.A. degree which was enjoyed by many brothers. It was the first time for many officers to take positions in the degree. Our brother, Ross Cooper, performed a great job in the East. Brothers Michael Floering, Brad Partridge, Rodney Gnoinsky, James Wooster, Bill Eckert, Thomas Sawicz and Bob Kenney did outstanding job. Do not forget the lecture which was delivered by our brother Brian Work. He has been already asked by other lodges to give the lecture. We initiated four brothers that night. The meal was provided by our brother, the Senior Warden, to whom I give my compliment for the excellent food he offered us. Officers like them make us all proud. They enjoy the work and the fraternity.

Brothers James Wooster and Ross Cooper have offered their knowledge in TV production to be put to work in our lodge. Therefore, we are working on digitizing all the information we have regarding the past masters and history of the lodge. The end product will be enjoyed by all the members of the lodge. If any brother has any information, pictures, movies, etc... related to the old building of the lodge or any historic information, I would appreciate it if we could be allowed access to that information. The project is tedious and time consuming. I very much appreciate the brothers putting their time and effort.

The building committee chaired by brother Geoff Williams has been working hard on improving the building appearance and keeping it in good shape. Brother Williams and his team have been working on replacing the A/C filters, replacing outside lights, cleaning the carpet inside the lodge room, pressure cleaning the entrance and many other tasks. We should thank them for the time and effort they making to improve our lodge, by buying tickets to our upcoming luncheon on March 15th. Of course you will be enjoying a famous movie, "The Man Who Would Be King". The proceeds of the luncheon will go to our BUILDING FUND to help the members of the building committee complete their tasks.

In the next few months, I plan on attending other lodges in the district. If you are interested in joining me, please let me know, so I could form a group of visiting brothers.
