Brethren

We were honored to participate in the celebration of W:. B.: C. Stanley Weaver's retirement from the Lake Worth Drainage District. His long and faithful service of 47 years is truly a major accomplishment. He was honored by having the Boynton Canal renamed the C. Stanley Weaver Canal. A large plaque is to be placed at the intersection of Military Trail and Old Boynton Road. W:. B.: Weaver is our oldest living Worshipful Master, was the Master in 1955 and laid the cornerstone of our old Lodge on Ocean Avenue!

We had a called communication September 9th to initiate Vincent Britton, Eric Scott Malloy, Blake Chapman and Osvaldo Llanes. JW Michael Floering was in the East and he and his team did a masterful job.

At our stated meeting on September 13th we elected Bro. Seymour Himmelstein for membership in Boynton Lodge. Welcome Bro. Himmelstein. R:. H:. Karroum provided us with an educational and interesting video telling all about the George Washington Masonic Memorial.

On September 21st four Brothers from our Lodge went to Freeport, Grand Bahamas to see Sean Callender, a member of Boynton Lodge be installed as Worshipful Master to be in the in the Chair of King Solomon for the next year. Congratulations Sean and our wishes for a great year.

At the Scottish Rite meeting Wednesday the 27th we presented W:. B.: John Lund his fifty-year certificate and gold pin.

His whole family was there along with over thirty members of Boynton Lodge. It was honor to be able to make the presentation to so great a Mason.

At our stated meeting on the 28th, Brothers Robert Kelly and Brian Work stood proficient for their Master Mason Degree and did an outstanding job. Congratulations to them and their instructor, Steven Chubbock. Bro Robert Kares received his 40 year certificate and silver pin. Congratulations Bro. Kares. We wish you many more years.

October will again be a busy month with regular stated meetings on the second and fourth Thursday and a called communication on October 13 to put on a Master Mason Degree. The degree will be followed by an outstanding barbeque of huge hamburgers, hot-dogs and chicken with all the accompanying picnic type dishes. The donation is $10.00, children under ten free. The proceeds will go to our scholarship fund. If you don't have your tickets yet, you can get hold of Everett Tarter or send the money to the Lodge to his attention. Come on out see a well-performed Degree and then enjoy the friendship and Brotherly love and get to know the families of the Brothers.

On November 4th we will be having a steak dinner at the Lodge. Those of you that were at last year's steak dinner will remember it was a great feast and we expect to repeat it this year. The donation will be $20.00 with the proceeds going to the building fund. I would expect every member to get at least two tickets for this worthy cause.

Plus Lux
Sincerely and Fraternaly
Wayne A. Hansen, WM
