Brethren

August was a busy month for Boynton Lodge. We raised to the sublime degree of a Master Mason six Brothers. The degree team did an excellent rituals work. Their long hours at practice paid off. We had the honor of the presence of the DDGM, RW Mike Cribbet in attendance. Also WM Gerald Strohacker, WM of Gulfstream Lodge No 245 was present and gave an impressive Master Mason lecture. The meeting was very well attended and needless to say we finished near midnight.

The official visit of our Grand Master, MW Dale I. Goehrig was a success with attendance of over 300 people for dinner and about 150 Brothers in Lodge. We ought to congratulate our DDGM, RW Mike Cribbet, for a job well done. Our Demolay Boynton Chapter, Demolay Jupiterlight Chapter and The Rainbow Girls helped serving dinner and attending to the honored guests that night. They did a wonderful job and everyone was impressed. Let 's keep helping them grow and prosper. They represent our future.

We will have an EA degree the first meeting in September 10th, starting at 7:00PM. I hope many Brothers could attend and support the new initiates and the Lodge.

The dues collected from the Brothers in the Lodge cover only 40% of the Lodge expenses. We still have many brothers who have not paid their dues for 2009. Please check your dues card and if does not say 2009 on it, that means you have not paid your dues for 2009, and/or call our secretary if you are in doubt or have financial trouble for this year. The Lodge is here to help you.

Arawak Lodge No 8877, Freeport , Grand Bahamas, is having its annual installation of officers Friday September 18th, 2009 and all of you are invited to attend. If you would like to go contact our secretary for information on the trip and lodging.

Sincerely & Fraternaly,

Michael A. Floering, W.M.
Proud to serve Boynton Lodge #236 F & AM
